6.3 Test Data: A set of sample videos and images used to test the system's object detection and tracking capabilities.